

■ From left, Medway and Maidstone's Stuart Hitchcock, Martin Brockman and Nick Simpson with their trophies

Brockman goes close in the decathlon

THE annual end-of-season Multi Events Championships for Kent-qualified athletes produced a great battle for supremacy.

Medway & Maidstone's Martin Brockman finished second to Blackheath

■ Multi Events Championship

& Bromley's Alex Pope in the senior decathlon, just 63 points behind.

M&M's Stuart Hitchcock took the under-20 men's decathlon with 5,067 points and Nick Simpson made it a double for M&M with victory in the under-17 men's octathlon with 4,173 points.

Adam Asher of Ashford AC took the under-15 boys' pentathlon.

Dartford Harriers had a clean sweep of the women's golds, with Claire Capon in the senior heptathlon, Megan Edwards in the under-20 heptathlon, Nadine Terry in the under-17 heptathlon and Bridie Edwards in the under-15 pentathlon.

